Papal Tweet

"Pride is a potent poison: a single drop is enough to spoil an entire life filled with goodness. A person may have performed a mountain of good deeds, but if we did them only to exalt ourselves, then we cannot call ourselves virtuous".

Baptisms are on the first and third Sunday of each month in our parish at 12 noon and we only take five children on any one date. Please call the office to book.

First time parents are requested to do a one evening course prior to the baptism of their child. The course is held in one of the six parishes in our vicariate. The staff team will advise when you call to book on 90618180.
