Papal Tweet

“Jesus gazes at everyone with an intense love that does not judge but knows how to be close and encourage. Art teaches us an outlook that is not possessive and does not objectify, but neither is it indifferent or superficial. Art teaches us a contemplative gaze”.

Baptisms are on the first and third Sunday of each month in our parish at 12 noon and we only take five children on any one date. Please call the office to book.

First time parents are requested to do a one evening course prior to the baptism of their child. The course is held in one of the six parishes in our vicariate. The staff team will advise when you call to book on 90618180.
