Sick and housebound

Fr Tony will visit the sick and housebound this coming week due to his annual leave the week after.

As previous years, we will not be printing a bulletin during July and August. We will start back again in September.

Similar to last year, we will postpone adorations for July and August, starting back September. This also means there will not be any confessions on a Wednesday throughout July and August.

During July and August there will be a 10am Mass on a Friday morning (except during Fr Tony's holiday period) with the 7.30pm Mass being postponed until September. The Mass on the first Friday of the month with the Blessing of the Sick will still take place, but will be at 10am.

Please use our website to keep up with any news or have a look on our church notice boards where any news will be shared.

Anniversary and Month Mind Masses

Please book your anniversary masses well in advance. As we come into the summer period, the office may be closed at certain times to allow for annual leave therefore if you don't have your family intention booked, you may lose out and we don't like you to be disappointed.

Thank you

Painting of the Church

In July, we are having the internal of our church painted and the proposed colours are on posters in the porch at the rear of the church should you wish to have a look. Your thoughts would be appreciated.

Thank you.
